

Director Biography

Sean Flynn

In 2007, Sean co-founded HF Fund Services Ltd. ("HF"), a Cayman Islands-based company licensed in the Cayman Islands, to provide independent directors to alternative investment funds and investment management companies. He currently serves as an independent director on several Cayman Islands-based alternative investment funds and investment management companies. Previously, Sean was a Managing Director at UBS with global responsibility for all of its hedge fund administration business. He started the hedge fund administration business for UBS in the Cayman Islands in 1992, establishing offices in Dublin, Toronto, New York and London. He has served as a director for the past 30 years on Cayman Islands licensed banks, hedge funds, venture capital, real estate and private equity funds. He has been a member of various private sector and Government committees promoting Cayman as the leading hedge fund domicile and served as a member of the Cayman Government's Financial Service Counsel. He is a founding member and former president of the Cayman Islands Fund Administrators Association. Prior to joining UBS in 1986, he was employed with Deloitte in Cayman and KPMG in Dublin. He is a fellow of the Institute of Chartered accountants of Ireland and a member of Cayman Islands Institute of Professional Accountants.
